

SSCERT's Mobile Command Post

How does SSCERT serve the community?

We are sponsored by the Stallion Springs Police Department to provide the following services to our community:

- Teach emergency preparedness
- Help our families and neighbors in times of need
- Assist the Police Department in a non-law enforcement capacity
- Assist other professional emergency responders
- Support community events

Who We Are

About Us

SSCERT educates people about disaster preparedness for hazards that may impact our area and trains them in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations.

CERT members in action

What is CERT?

As a nonprofit organization operating under FEMA guidelines and reporting to the Chief of Police, SSCERT comprises about 35 active trained disaster workers who assist and supplement the police department and other public safety organizations in doing the most good for the greatest number of people.

How do I get involved?

Please attend one of our monthly meetings held the first Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. at the CSD building.

“Doing the greatest good for the greatest number of people.”

How to become CERT-trained

Attend one of our 23-hour Basic Training Classes. Classes are held in Stallion Springs.

What does the training comprise?

- Personal emergency preparedness
- Fire safety and fire suppression
- Medical operations
- Light search and rescue
- Disaster psychology
- Terrorism awareness and recognition
